

POLITICAL ACTIVITY IN THE WORKPLACE

As Georgia Tech employees, we have a duty to keep our political activities from interfering with, or being associated with, our employment. Remember, however, we are free to exercise our political and civic rights outside of the scope of our employment at Georgia Tech.

The Do's

Do respect diverse opinions. Georgia Tech doesn't tolerate harassment, discrimination, or unprofessional conduct.

Do be clear your opinions are your own and do not represent Georgia Tech.

Do fulfill your civic obligations and engage in normal political processes.

Do get permission to use facilities for political speech. These can only be hosted by recognized Georgia Tech organizations.

Do exercise your right to vote. If your work hours prevent you from voting in a 2 hr window before or after work, talk with your manager to schedule time.

The Don'ts

Don't wear clothing or display memorabilia at work that involves political campaigning containing a candidate's name, image, slogan, or logo.

Don't tell anyone who to vote for, or endorse a candidate at work.

Don't run for or hold an elected state or federal political office while you are an employee.

Don't manage or take a part in a political campaign that interferes with performing your job.

Don't use Georgia Tech or USG resources, including computers or devices, email or social media accounts, for political speech.
